The DUKE - Who We Are

The Duquesne Duke is the award-winning student newspaper at Duquesne University. With a weekly print edition and updated website, The Duke has desks in news (campus, local and national), sports, arts and entertainment, features and opinions, and is comprised of more than 60 student journalists.

The Duke is published every Thursday during the academic year. Each week, content is available both online and in 3,000 print issues at 13 newsstands across Campus. The newspaper received the Society of Professional Journalists' Mark of Excellence award for the 2009 Best All-Around Daily Student Newspaper. Individual pieces published in The Duke have been recognized by the SPJ and the Student Keystone Press Awards.

Duquesne University

Founded in 1878, Duquesne University is the only Spiritan University in the world and is the largest Catholic university in Pennsylvania. Duquesne's self contained 46-acre campus overlooking downtown Pittsburgh is home to 10,000 students which represent every state in the U.S. and 80 nations worldwide.

Publication Schedule

The Duquesne Duke publishes once a week on Thursdays during the academic year. The Duke does not publish over University breaks or during final exam periods.

Duquesne University hosts a number of events which attract alumni, prospective students and non-University affiliated members of the community. Dates for these events, as well as special issues of The Duke, will be announced at a later date.

We ask that our clients understand that our staff is composed completely of full-time students, therefore, The Duquesne Duke is not able to run on a regular 9am - 5pm schedule. As a staff, The Duquesne Duke works hard to ensure that all inquiries are addressed within 24 hours of their placement and that our deadlines are properly enforced.

Advertising Disclaimer

The Duquesne Duke's editorial staff has final discretion over whether or not a submitted advertisement is permitted to run in the newspaper. As a student-led newspaper at a private university, we reserve the right to refuse an advertisement if we believe it is ethically objectionable.
